

306D.4 Scenic highway advertising.

The state department of transportation shall have the authority to adopt rules to control the erection of new advertising devices on a highway designated as a scenic highway or scenic byway in order to comply with federal requirements concerning the implementation of a scenic byways program.

95 Acts, ch 135, §4

Referred to in §306C.11